SOLES Online M.Ed. Program: From Conceptualizations To Fruition

Tuesday, April 8th from 12:15 – 2:15 p.m., in Salomon Hall

The faculty of SOLES's Learning and Teaching Department developed, through collaboration with Professional and Continuing Education, its first fully online masters degree. The Online M.Ed. program launched in September of 2013 with 25 eager students from across the country.

As colleagues across campus consider developing online programs of their own, members of the L&T Faculty (Bobbi Hansen, Noriyuki Inoue, and Suzanne Stolz) and PCE's Director of Online Education (Roxanne Morrison) will share what they have done. In this panel discussion, you'll have an opportunity to see some of the courses, hear faculty perspectives, and ask questions about the experience of transitioning from onsite to online teaching.

Kindly RSVP by Friday, April 4th, 2014

You may register one of three ways: either by (1) contacting Johnny Bobé II at (619) 260-7402; (2) by emailing cee@sandiego.edu; or (3) online at www.sandiego.edu/cee
Thank you!
