

ETLW 403 Sustainability and Business (20 students)
Writing Assignments

Week 3:	Build upon the content from class to research and identify the greatest climate-related risk and opportunity for your selected industry. Submit an outline for your industry analysis in preparation for your 500-word written submission that will be due the following week. Include at least 3 reputable references in APA format. Professor feedback on outline.
Week 4:	Edit and revise your week 3 outline analyzing climate change risks and opportunities for your industry. More limited professor feedback.
Week 5:	Build upon the content from class to research and identify the most significant risks and opportunities for your industry shifting to the circular economy. Write an industry analysis brief with the most relevant information. Maximum 500 words. Include at least 3 reputable references in APA format. All students schedule an appointment with the writing center for feedback.
Week 6:	Edit and revise your first draft of the circular economy analysis (submitted prior week) incorporating feedback from the writing center to submit your final version. More limited professor feedback.
Week 7:	Build upon the content from class to research and identify which aspects of employee and human rights are most relevant for your selected industry. Write an industry analysis brief with the most relevant information. Include at least 3 reputable references in APA format. Maximum 500 words. Peer feedback in class through Blackboard discussion board
Week 8:	Edit and revise your week 7 brief analyzing employee and human rights for your industry incorporating peer feedback. More limited professor feedback.
Week 4,6,9,10:	Write a professional thank you email to one of our guest speakers. Be sure to follow email guidelines presented in class. Submit your email in Blackboard for review before you are approved to end to the guest speaker. Professor feedback.